Dear Allen:

On Sunday, September 30th, the Blade-Tribune is going to produce its first Sunday edition.

This will be a big first for us and for this city as well as for the surrounding area in this rapidly growing part of the world.

Could you find it possible to send some congratulatory message for this occasion?

Any message you could send we would be printed on the front page along with the usual expressions from the mayor and the city councilmen and the heads of all the clubs in the town.

You can well imagine that a message from you would make the whole town real proud.

Sincerely,

Tom

Thomas W. Braden

Concerning your letter of September 11, we have received a message from Mr. Dulles asking us to send following:

"Dear Tom,

My hearty congratulations to you and the Daily Blade Tribune on the occasion of your first Sunday edition. This achievement reflects both the progress of the community you serve and the satisfaction it has in the role the Blade Tribune plays in its development.

You have my very best wishes for continued success in accomplishing the highest standards in American journalism.
